Our Giant Inflatable Advertising Products and Services

Alternative Adverts Ltd offers a comprehensive range of inflatable advertising products and custom promotional displays to meet different branding, marketing and event requirements.

1. Giant Advertising Blimps

Our giant advertising blimps are high-visibility promotional balloons designed to attract attention at outdoor events, commercial locations and major brand activation venues.

These large branded advertising inflatables can display company logos, promotional messages and campaign artwork, helping businesses achieve greater visibility and brand recognition.

2. Sky Spheres and Sky Cubes

Sky spheres and sky cubes are large, custom-branded inflatable advertising structures that provide distinctive visual displays for product promotions, exhibitions, shopping centres and outdoor marketing campaigns.

They can be customised with corporate colours, logos and advertising messages to reinforce brand identity.

3. Giant Inflatable Product Replicas

Our custom inflatable product replicas transform everyday products and packaging into oversized, attention-grabbing advertising displays.

We provide giant inflatable replicas of products such as beverage bottles, cans, food packaging, cosmetics, household products and other branded merchandise.

These promotional structures are particularly effective for product launches, consumer engagement campaigns, experiential marketing and retail activations.

4. Windymen and Inflatable Air Dancers

Windymen, also known as inflatable air dancers or dancing advertising inflatables, are animated promotional displays designed to attract passing pedestrians and motorists.

They are suitable for retail outlets, filling stations, supermarkets, shopping centres, exhibitions, store openings and outdoor promotional activities.

5. Cold-Air Inflatable Advertising Balloons

Our cold-air inflatable advertising solutions provide versatile promotional displays for indoor and outdoor environments.

Available in various shapes and sizes, these inflatables can be customised for brand promotions, corporate events, product demonstrations and advertising campaigns.

6. Rooftop Advertising Balloons and Rooftoppers

Rooftop advertising balloons are large branded inflatable displays positioned on suitable rooftops or elevated structures to increase visibility.

They offer an additional outdoor advertising option for commercial buildings, retail outlets, promotional venues and selected high-traffic locations, subject to relevant safety and installation requirements.

7. Custom Inflatable Advertising Arches

We provide branded inflatable arches for event entrances, sporting competitions, exhibitions, corporate functions, roadshows and product activation campaigns.

Our inflatable arches can feature company logos, campaign slogans, sponsor identities and promotional artwork.

8. Mobile Inflatable Advertising and Promotional Displays

Our mobile promotional advertising solutions help brands extend their visibility across selected campaign locations.

These may include branded mobile displays, inflatable promotional structures and mobile billboard advertising for roadshows, market storms and outdoor marketing activities.

9. Inflatable Event Stations and Promotional Structures

We provide custom-branded inflatable event stations and promotional structures for product demonstrations, experiential marketing, exhibitions and consumer engagement campaigns.

These structures can help create distinctive branded environments where businesses interact directly with their target audiences.

10. Inflatable Messages and Branded Latex Balloons

Our inflatable promotional messages and branded latex balloons provide flexible advertising options for corporate celebrations, retail promotions, product launches and special events.

Designs can incorporate campaign slogans, company logos, product messages and promotional artwork.

11. Inflatable Stage Designs and Event Decorations

We offer creative inflatable stage structures, decorative displays and branded installations for concerts, festivals, entertainment events, corporate programmes and promotional activations.

These solutions help create visually engaging event environments while strengthening brand visibility.

12. Decoflags, Parade Balloons and Promotional Inflatables

Our range of decoflags, parade balloons and custom promotional inflatables provides additional branding opportunities for outdoor events, public celebrations, exhibitions and large-scale promotional campaigns.

Custom-Made Inflatable Advertising Solutions for Every Brand

At Alternative Adverts Ltd, we understand that effective advertising requires creativity, visibility and a clear understanding of each brand’s marketing objectives.

That is why we provide bespoke inflatable advertising solutions tailored to your products, brand identity, campaign requirements and target audience.

Our customised inflatable advertising options include:

- Giant inflatable structures in different shapes and sizes
- Oversized product and packaging replicas
- Custom-branded promotional blimps and balloons
- Inflatable advertising displays featuring company logos
- Personalised colours, graphics and promotional messages
- Bespoke inflatable installations for events and exhibitions
- Campaign-specific inflatable designs for product launches and brand activations

Whether your business requires a single giant inflatable product replica or multiple branded inflatable displays for a coordinated promotional campaign, we can help develop a solution aligned with your advertising objectives.

Benefits of Giant Inflatable Advertising for Businesses

Giant inflatable advertising is an effective way to create visual impact and complement traditional outdoor advertising, digital marketing and experiential brand campaigns.

Increased Brand Visibility

Large inflatable advertising structures are designed to attract attention and make brands more noticeable in busy commercial environments and promotional locations.

Stronger Brand Recognition

Custom inflatable replicas, branded balloons and promotional structures reinforce brand identity through distinctive shapes, colours, logos and product representations.

Memorable Consumer Experiences

Oversized product replicas and creative inflatable displays can generate curiosity, encourage audience engagement and create opportunities for photographs and social media sharing.

Flexible Advertising Applications

Inflatable advertising products can be incorporated into different promotional activities, including roadshows, product launches, retail campaigns, exhibitions and outdoor events.

Customised Brand Communication

Every inflatable display can be designed around specific products, campaign themes, corporate identities and promotional objectives.

Integration With Other Advertising Channels

Inflatable advertising can complement billboard advertising, mobile outdoor advertising, radio, television, digital campaigns and other brand activation activities to support an integrated marketing strategy.
