Ikoyi, a high-class neighborhood in Lagos, is well known for its calm streets, abundant vegetation, and beautiful buildings. Ikoyi's illuminated streets, which are lined with tempting billboards, add to the atmosphere and showcase the affluent way of life there. In Ikoyi, lamp poles are being used for more than just structural support; they are also used by brands for eye-catching advertising/marketing. Lamppole

Benefits of Lamp pole advertising in Lagos

Lagos State's capital, Ikeja, is a bustling environment that has offices, homes, and administrative structures. Lamppost advertising is a vital part of connecting brands with the diverse demographic that calls Ikeja home. The lamp poles here serve as an informative avenue to disseminate messages about everything from local businesses to community events.

A lamp pole advertisement typically costs between N70,000 to N80,000 depending on the location in Lagos. You would probably agree with me that purchasing ten (10) poles in a certain place would be less expensive compared to the cost of a single billboard in the same position if this sum were to be compared to the price of a billboard in the same location.

As opposed to other forms of advertising where all impressions are gathered from a single point; lamp pole advertising provides a unique method where the impressions are distributed in a repetitive method (for instance, getting 20 lamp posts in a single location creates more frequency and repetitive impressions). Hence, people driving can read through the display Ad severally as they drive through the specific location.

In conclusion, as Lagos develops and grows Lamp Pole advertising will remain a dynamic tool for marketers to interact with their target customers. Lamp pole advertisements offer an immersive experience by utilizing the power of illumination and thoughtful placement, increasing the brightness and vitality of the location while delivering powerful messages to its audience.
